

I oppose this ruling which will allow large media corporations to basically monopolize the radio/tv industry. ClearChannel has already begun to do this and if this docket is passed, it will open up the floodgates and make things even worse. Allowing companies like ClearChannel to gobble up the little guys is not what America should be about and it is up to the FCC to protect the little guy. Do what is right, and do not pass this docket.